Haus Villigst is a historical ensemble of buildings whose origin dates back to a manor from the 12th century. In 1948 the house was taken over by the Protestant Church of Westfalia and converted to a conference center.

How to reach Haus Villigst

Arriving by car from motorway A1(E37): Take the exit Schwerte and turn in the direction of Schwerte/Iserlohn (B236), continue on B236 through the town of Schwerte and cross the river Ruhr. Immediately after the bridge turn left (signal) into the direction of Menden/Iserlohn (Iserlohner Strasse). After about 1,5 km you reach the Haus Villigst.

Arriving by plane at the international airport in Düsseldorf: Please take one of the many train connections to Bochum (30 to 50 minutes transfer time depending on the type of train). Purchase a type C ticket at a vending machine (8,70 EUR) and punch it before you go to the platform. We will pick you up from the main railway station in Bochum and transfer you to Haus Villigst. Let us know in advance your arrival time in Düsseldorf.
